

A patient association in rare diseases is first and foremost families who all have one thing in common: they need a cure to be found and made available.

Discover how French company AtmosR worked with a patient association to tackle the need to find a cure for Ondine:

Check our Youtube channel for more videos!

Key words:

- Rare disease
- Patient association
- Patient collaboration
  - eCOA

Learn more:

How A Patient Association Gave Rise To A Company

25 April 2023

A patient association in rare diseases is first and foremost families who all have one

Read More »

Direct Insights from Cancer Patients: How they help us understand disease burden and the need for an individualized approach

12 April 2023

Cultural differences and individual preferences have a significant impact on healthcare and clinical trial experience.

Read More »

Kayentis and ClinOne combined solution

Improve your eCOA data collection and clinical trial efficiency

Kayentis and ClinOne combined solution

4 April 2023

Improve your eCOA data collection and clinical trial efficiency thanks to Kayentis and ClinOne combined

Read More »

Rare Disease Case Study

30 March 2023

Over 90% of rare diseases have no treatment... There are more than 6,000 known rare diseases...

Read More »

Kayentis raises further €5M to boost US activities

28 March 2023

Additional funds will be used to scale-up Kayentis' operations in North America to support clinical

Read More »

Unlock Additional Capabilities for your next Clinical Trial

A single point of entry for all features: best-in-class eCOA, Consent Management, and Patient Engagement Solutions

Unlock additional capabilities for your next clinical trial

16 March 2023

Benefit from the alliance between Kayentis and ClinOne and access to a complete range of

Read More »